A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Tonight, we gather to celebrate excellence in Television Arts. We are also marking a very big number in the life of our organization!

Welcome to the 60th National Capital Chesapeake Bay Emmy® Regional Awards.

During the nominations party, I pointed out that Dwight Eisenhower was in The White House when Capital Emmys® first began operations. That's more than just a fun fact. It's an important piece of our history. We are a "Founding Chapter" and we remain one of the strongest Chapters in The Academy. Thanks to your professional contributions, we have helped make The Emmy® Award the most important recognition in our industry.

Speaking of which, we have a near record number of Emmy® Nominations tonight. There are nearly 500 of you who have the opportunity to bring "The Golden Lady" home. Best of luck to all of you!

I also need to point out that there are numerous people who have contributed tens of thousands of volunteer hours to manage our Chapter and make this event possible. This includes our volunteer Board of Governors and members of our standing Committees who give their time and experience contributing to what I like to call "the life of our chapter."

Four of them need to be credited by name: our Emmy® Night Co-Chairs: Virginia Pancoe and Joe Yasharoff, as well as our Awards Committee Co-Chairs: Jason Gittlen and Amanda Zimmer.

Tonight, we also honor two special people for their contributions to our profession.

Bruce Johnson of WUSA9 is this year's recipient of the Board of Governor's Award. For 42 years, Bruce has worked as an Anchor and Reporter in DC. He has 22 Emmy® Awards to his credit. He is a past recipient of the Ted Yates Award and a member of The Academy's Silver Circle. Bruce was recently diagnosed with Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma and is undergoing chemo-therapy. His career is impressive. His courage is more than inspiring.

Doreen Gentzler of WRC/NBC4 is being honored with the Ted Yates Award. I've always referred to this recognition as our "Profile in Courage" and Doreen is the embodiment of that. For nearly 30 years, Doreen anchored alongside the legendary Jim Vance. In July, when Vance passed away, Doreen showed her signature grace and courage helping people at NBC4, and throughout all of DC, come to grips with the loss.

I also need to say a special thanks to the Chapter staff. They manage our day-to-day operations, plan our events and keep our financial house in order.

Finally, a small test for all of you attending tonight. For four years, I've written letters like this for the Emmy® Night program. Frankly, I'm not convinced anyone ever reads them. With that in mind, I will buy a drink for the first 5 people who tell me they've read this before my opening speech. Just curious!

THE EMMY® AWARDS

The National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences recognizes outstanding individual achievement in the National Capital Chesapeake Bay region by conferring annual awards of merit.

The Emmy® Award is intended to recognize excellence. Therefore, in each category, one award, more than one award or no award may be given. The Awards Committee wants to remind NCCB members of the importance and honor of the nomination itself.

This year news, program and individual craft entries were judged online and in person by panels in Heartland, Lone Star, Mid-Atlantic, Ohio Valley, Rocky Mountain Southwest, Pacific Southwest, and Suncoast. The National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter's Awards Committee reviewed the unidentified totals prepared by the Certified Public Accounting firm of Bishop Farmer and Co., LLP for the purpose of determining the number of awards to be given.

HOW THE EMMY® JUDGING PROCESS WORKS

The Emmy® Award celebrates excellence in television with the announcement of the nominations in May and the awarding of statuettes in June. In December, January, and the early weeks of February, our Chapter receives hundreds of entries in 125 categories. After a thorough review by the Awards Committee members, the entries are divided up among other NATAS Chapters. They are screened and judged online, or in-person at Super Panels, by seasoned TV station staff, production companies, and independents who are experienced in the categories they have agreed to judge. This year, seven chapters judged our entries and in turn, we will judge their entries throughout the year.

Programming and News categories have a high score of 30; Crafts have a high score of 20. When the scores come in, the accounting firm of Bishop Farmer and Co., LLP translates the scores into percentages. So when it comes time for the Awards Committee to evaluate whether a category has Emmy® recipients and nominees, they get a blind category with a long list of percentages. After several years of doing it this way, the National Awards Committee has devised certain cut offs for scores that determine whether a category has Emmy® recipients and nominees. As a general guideline, entries that score 90% or above are awarded an Emmy® and those that score 80% or above receive a Nomination.

Kristen Berset-Harris is host of Great Day Washington on WUSA9. Kristen spent 6 years as WUSA9 Sports Anchor before joining the team at Great Day Washington. She still keeps up on all the sports news, while bringing viewers the latest and greatest that the DC area has to offer.

In June 2017, Kristen was honored by the National Capital Chesapeake Bay Chapter of the Emmy Awards with the Ted Yates Award. It's the chapter's 'Profile of Courage' award given to professionals in the news business who have exhibited bravery on and off the job. Kristen returned to WUSA9 in August 2017 after completing treatment for her second bout with breast cancer, and continues to be a strong advocate for awareness and early detection.

Kristen's career began on the white sandy beaches of her home state of Florida. Kristen was a news anchor at WJHG in Panama City, Fla., and co-host of the Professional Tarpon Tournament Series, a fishing show broadcast around the nation.

Kristen won the Florida Chapter Associated Press award for a 4 part series of her trip called "Journey to Freedom."

Her journey then took her from the Sunshine State to Charm City, shifting her focus 100% to Sports. Kristen was Weekend Sports Anchor for WBFF in Baltimore, MD and part of a team that won the Chesapeake Bay Region Associated Press award for Best Year Round Sports Coverage.

Kristen was also Host of the Emmy winning show 'Ravens Report', the flagship program for the Baltimore Ravens that showcases life in the NFL.

TED YATES AWARD

Ted Yates was a NBC News producer who traveled the world on assignment. Killed in the practice of his profession, he is remembered for his achievements in journalism. This award is given to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding professional and personal qualities in their contribution to the National Capital Chesapeake Bay region's television news and public affairs.

DOREEN GENTZLER

Anchor/ Medical Reporter
NBC4

Doreen Gentzler anchors News4 at 6 and News4 at 11. She also serves as the station's medical reporter, filing cutting-edge health reports for all of the station's newscasts.

For 28 years, Gentzler anchored with Jim Vance, making them one of the longest-tenured anchor teams in the country. Vance died in July 2017, and Gentzler led NBC4's on-air tributes.

Born in DC and educated in Arlington, Gentzler is proud of her deep roots in the Washington area. She spent several years honing her reporting and anchoring skills in Chattanooga,

Charlotte, and Cleveland, then Philadelphia at WCAU before joining NBC4 in 1989. Gentzler also filled in for vacationing news anchors on "The Today Show" and "NBC at Sunrise."

In her award-winning News 4 Your Health segments, Gentzler has brought viewers into hospital operating rooms, profiled medical breakthroughs, and shown the latest technology helping to save lives. Her reporting has brought her to Bosnia, Ecuador, and the Persian Gulf, where she reported live from the USNS Comfort, a navy hospital ship tending to U.S. troops.

Since May of 2014, Gentzler has been the lead reporter for a station-wide project on mental health called "Changing Minds." The project has garnered local and national recognition for highlighting a wide range of issues related to mental illness, a subject that can be challenging to cover in a TV news format. Changing Minds has taken us in many directions, but the goal is to reduce the stigma associated with mental illness.

Gentzler is also the spokesperson for the station's health-related community outreach activities such as the annual NBC4 Health and Fitness Expo.

Gentzler has won three local Emmy awards for reporting and anchoring as well as three other Emmy awards for news writing and reporting while in Cleveland. She holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Georgia.

She and her family live in Chevy Chase, MD.

We are currently accepting judges for a variety of entries from the Rocky Mountain Southwest NATAS Chapter and the Mid-Atlantic NATAS Chapter. If you would like to judge, please send an email describing your background and qualifications to judging@capitalemmys.org.

NATAS-NCCB Members, if you judge three or more times you will receive a $25 credit with the NATAS-NCCB Chapter. The credit can be applied to membership renewals, Emmy® entry submissions, gala tickets, and recognition award orders. Credits will be provided by October 1, and will expire September 30 of the following calendar year.

If you are not a member of NATAS-NCCB, you may still be eligible to judge. Non-members who judge three or more times will receive a $10 discount on membership dues for the following year.
